MEDIA RELEASE

Carenage Man Arrested for Ammo, Cocaine

Western Division detectives are currently interrogating a 38-year-old Carenage man on how he came into possession of a quantity of ammunition and a cocaine.

The suspect was arrested yesterday afternoon following a raid at his Mt Pleasant, Carenage, apartment by officers of the Western Division Task Force (WDTF).

According to police reports, WDTF officers executed a search warrant for dangerous drugs at the suspect's home during which they allegedly found, 51 rounds of nine millimetre ammunition in a white crate and wrapped in black plastic, 12 rounds of .38 ammunition in black crate and a black plastic bag concealed in a multi-coloured sheet containing 27 transparent plastic bags containing cocaine.

The suspect was immediately arrested in connection with finds and taken to the St James Police Station pending further investigations.

PC Warrick of the WDTF is continuing enquiries.
